Nachos went over well. Will have nachos again this year. Nachos hamburger was super spicy, but comes prepared from Sysco Foods. Received 8 cases last year, what was left over was used for soccer games due to limited concessions.

Pub/Hosp: Kari Schmidt for Vocal

Boards over the summer--Kari agreed to do choir boards, West Side Story for Band music, Since we don't have a band chair for Pub/Hosp Penny & Tessa will handle them. Multiple people offered to help with boards. Will continue to seek Band Chair

Fundraising:

Nothing new

Transportation

Old Business:

Fridge has not been moved from the pop storage room, and the freezer is still in concessions stand, Power added to the pop storage room, so we could put a fridge/freezer, Mike Fitzgerald gave us the Home Ec fridge/freezer for pop storage room.

Craft Fair: $ 140.00 to deposit for craft fair booth space.

Penny was contacted by Mr. Pfanstiel, is asking Music Boosters to fund $1000.00 for metal oars in which Coach Stein has implemented as a token to volleyball, football, and other organizations, these have already been ordered, full order was $3500.00, for the oars in which the students, teachers, and staff can earn throughout the year. Justin Pfenning created and cut over a 1000 metal oars for Coach Stein.

Vote tabled, until more information could be given whether the fine arts children can receive these awards.

New Business:

Reminded the band/choir camps. Pfanstiel, stated he didn't have anyone, and that he defers to Shack for camps. More information coming at a later date.

Reminder to get scholarship winners from Mr. Pfanstiel and Mr. Shack, must notify the incoming treasurer so we can provide a check to the school their going to, financial aid address, student Id number, and picture of registered classes. Follow up with school to be sure the check was received and applied to child's account.

Penny has binders for committee chair, with timeline for chair highlighted, everyone has the same timeline, just specific to those chairs. Binders given to chairs tonight 5/21/2018.

SaDonna has given Penny a thumb drive, with lots of information on it for past booster club items.
